Fund manager's report

Source : Groupama AM

European markets ended July higher (MSCI France +1.4%, MSCI EMU +1%, MSCI Europe +0.7%). Earnings reports for Q2 and H1 2025 were solid overall, reassuring investors about the growth of European companies. This momentum was supported by greater visibility on tariffs. Agreements were reached with Japan and then with the European Union, averting the threat of a 30% tariff, with a new US tariff set at 15% on most European imports. Driven by solid results, banks (+7%), leisure (+6%) and energy (+4%) outperformed media (-7%), retail (-4%) and real estate (-4%) by a wide margin. During the month, we increased our positions in Legrand and GTT.
